Sarah Hood Salomon

Reception: Sunday, July 14 from 3pm to 5pm

The Spirit of the Woodlands explores the healing and rejuvenating power of the forest. This new body of work by Sarah Hood Salomon features moody black and white images of fleeting beauty, unreachable areas, and islands so small they only have two trees. Salomon finds that the ever-changing qualities of the woodlands provide solace and inspiration for the artistic soul. Multiple Exposures Gallery Studio 312 is located at 105 N. Union St., Alexandria, VA.
